

LOCAL IN BRIEF

Matt Campbell, of this city, is very ill with heart trouble.

Mrs. J. K. Staples, of Nelson, spent Monday and Tuesday in this city.

Cabinets, $1.00 per dozen, at New Studio, over Marshall Book Store. (It

B. Richardson, of Boonville, was the guest Tuesday night of L. W. Scott and family.

Emmett Merry, of this city, will leave this week for Oklahoma to look out a location.

Mr. and Mrs. Easley, living on West Arrow street, are both quite sick with Erysipelas.

Come to the New Studio for Easter Photos at $1.00 per dozen, over Marshall Book Store. It

Miss Lulu Mackey returned Tuesday afternoon from an extended visit to relatives at Clarksville.

Guaranteed Cabinet Photos at $1.00 per dozen at the New Studio, over the Marshall Book Store. It Karl Herckenrath, of Fulton, will arrive Friday for a visit to his uncle, T. W. Hunter, and family.

Miss Elizabeth Lesueur, the guest of Mrs. W. C. Gower, returned Wednesday to her home in Kansas City.

J. W. Sparks spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Kansas City, where he conducted a Hereford cattle sale.

The Saline Telephone Co. made connection this week with Salt Springs, Shackelford and Mount Leonard.

Thomas Otley, of this city, has a large and enthusiastic class in harmony that are making fine progress.

Harry P. Mammon, of Bloomington, Ill., was the guest Wednesday of Robert Reynolds and family in this city.

Miss Mabel McMahan, of Blackwater, was the guest Wednesday of Misses Mary and Bird Harris, east of Marshall.

George T. Patterson will arrive Saturday to spend Easter with his parents, J. M. Patterson and wife, on East Arrow street.

We are sorry to learn that Miss Helen Fisher is quite sick with symptoms of pneumonia at her home on Vest street.

J. W. Patterson, who was quite sick on Sunday, is very much improved and his general condition is thought to be better.

Miss Rebecca Manheim, after a delightful visit to friends in this city, returned Wednesday to her home in St. Louis.

Miss Fannie Wood will entertain a party of young people to-night (Friday) in honor of Miss Katherine Nelson, of Denver.

Mrs. Maurice Wantuck and baby, Mary Adell, arrived Tuesday from Versailles for a visit to J. Lowenstein and wife on East North street.

Mrs. W. B. Nock spent several days with her parents, I. O. Striker and wife, this week, returning to Slater on Wednesday to make preparations to move, the house she occupies having been sold.

Mrs. S. J. Edmondson, of St. Louis, who has been so ill since her arrival at the home of her parents, on Eastwood, is improving.

W. B. Rhoades, who is attending business college at Kansas City, made a visit to his parents, John R. Rhoades and wife, on Capitol Hill.

Miss Laura Orear returned Tuesday from Jefferson City, where she has spent the winter very pleasantly with Ed T. Orear and family.

The following gentlemen from Sweet Springs attended court here Tuesday: W. H. Reaves, J. T. Wilson, Philip Hartman and James H. Ashurst.

Rev. J. W. Mitchell and Rev. E. E. Morris left Tuesday for Harrisonville to attend a committee meeting of the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

J. C. Jones returned to Kansas City Monday, where he is studying shorthand. He visited his wife and parents, T. C. Jones and wife, of the county.

At the meeting of the board of the F. M. L., at Columbia on Monday, April 1st, the contract for the new cottages was given to E. R. Page of this city.

Dr. D. C. Gore and wife returned Monday afternoon from Paris, where they were called on account of the illness and death of the late Dr. A. E. Gore.

Miss Mary Breathed, of Nelson, and Katherine Nelson, of Denver, were entertained several days this week at the home of J. L. Woodbridge on East street.

Frank Vawter and wife left Tuesday on the Missouri Pacific for Blackwater, where they were called by the sudden death of John A. Fray, the father of Mrs. Vawter.

Loomis & Gross furnished 300 loaves of bread on Thursday for the big sale of Mrs. William Bates, near Miami, whose stock and various farm implements were sold.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of J. Preston Mitchell of Napton and Miss Edie B. Harland of Blosser at the Baptist church, in this city, on Wednesday, April 10, at 2 p. m.

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the C. P. church met on Tuesday afternoon with Miss Maude Mackey on Odell avenue, when the subject for the afternoon lesson was "Mexico."

Miss Ida Bowles, daughter of J. W. Bowles of this city, left Thursday for an extended visit to relatives in Kentucky. Mrs. Bowles and little daughter, Eva, will join her as soon as school closes for a visit.

Joseph Bennett, of Leadville, Colo., was the guest over Sunday of Miss Ethel Vanstone of this city. Mr. Bennett has spent some years in the West, but was enroute to his old home in Michigan, where he may locate permanently.

Hon. M. W. Hall, accompanied by Dr. John R. Hall, left Tuesday afternoon for Kansas City, where a banquet was given the former at the Midland Hotel by the physicians of that city in appreciation of his recent work in introducing and influencing the passage of the Hall medical bill in the legislature.

Rev. Melvin Irvine, of St. Joseph, arrived in our city Monday night. He was called here on account of the serious illness of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Woodward, on Odell avenue.

G. A. Harbaugh, who for some months has been manager of the Bell Telephone Co. in this city, left Monday for Emporia, Kas., where he has a position, and Fred Tipping, of this city, succeed him as manager.

Miss Jennie Chandler spent a day or two this week in Blackburn looking after her interests there. She found Miss Sarah Martin well and rushed with orders in spring millinery. Miss Martin has changed her boarding-place to Mrs. Hunter's, where she is very much pleased.

Rev. Dudley Claggett, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Mount Olive, was the guest of friends here Tuesday. He was enroute to Lexington to attend a meeting of the Presbytery and was accompanied by I. C. Sydenstricker and Wm. Irving.

H. H. Downing and wife returned Sunday night from Battle Creek, Michigan, where the latter has been spending some five months at a sanitarium. The friends of Mrs. Downing will be glad to know she is fully recovered and weighs more than she has ever done.

Mrs. W. B. Parsons, of Missoula, Montana, is the guest of her son, H. H. Parsons, at the home of Mrs. Lottie V. Jackson. Mrs. Parsons has been visiting for some weeks in this state and will have a reunion of Missoula relatives at the home of J. D. Mockly, near Hughesville, before returning to her home.

Ben Duncan and wife, of Pleasant Hill, spent several days in this city this week visiting Mrs. C. W. Scott and aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Dunn, the latter of whom has been quite sick ever since her arrival here, some two months ago.

Mrs. Margaret E. Atwell, the aged mother of Bishop E. R. Atwell of the Episcopal Diocese of Western Missouri, died suddenly on Sunday, March 31st, at her home in Kansas City. Deceased was a lovely christian character, whose noble deeds of kindness and charity will live after her.

Judge J. H. Hunter, one of Marshall's highly respected citizens, is now editor and proprietor of the MARSHALL REPUBLICAN, Messrs. Beatty and Van Dyke having disposed of their valuable property to Judge Hunter. It is a good newspaper.—Mexico Intelligencer.

Conway & Dawes sold for Dr. W. B. Welsh this week his property on South Lafayette avenue to Dr. Hugh Doak, of Kansas City; consideration, $1,200. Also for Dr. Doak his interest in 87 acres of land north of Marshall to Dr. Welsh for $1,000.

Leonard Williams has returned from Chicago and is back in his old position at the New York Store, where he has worked for many years. Leonard thoroughly understands his business and gives perfect satisfaction in whatever he undertakes. He was greatly missed by our people while away.

A. F. Rector made a trip to Kansas City Tuesday.

New Studio open Sundays, 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., over Marshall Book Store.

David Merriwether will leave next week for Boonville, where he has accepted a position on the Missouri Pacific in the engineering department.

E. H. Grove
This signature is on every box of the genuine
Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets
the remedy that cures a cold in one day

...C. O. WRIGHT...
MANUFACTURER OF
FINE GRADE CIGARS
MANUFACTURED
PEDIGREE AND MIDWAY CIGAR
WE SOLICIT THE TRADE.

What Every Woman Wants to know is what is the newest dress goods trimmings and novelties for sale by the leading dry goods stores in New York City. "L'ART DE LA MODE" contains a long article each month stating what are the new materials and where they can be purchased. Going to have a new dress? "L'Art de la Mode" contains full information as to color, material, trimming, etc. Beautifully-colored plates show the correct combination of color, single numbers 35c. each, at all news-dealers, or from MORSE BRIGHTON CO.,
3 East 19th Street, New York.
Send 2c. stamp for sample copy.

Administrator's Notice.
Notice is hereby given that letters of administration on the estate of William M. Bates, deceased, were granted to the undersigned on the 15th day of March, 1901, by W. D. Bush, Judge Probate Court of Saline county, Mo.
All persons having claims against said estate are required to exhibit them to me for allowance within one year after the date of said letters, or they may be precluded from any benefit of such estate; and if such claims be not exhibited within two years from the time of the publication of this notice they shall be forever barred.
March 16, 1901. W. B. MULLINS,
7-4W Administrator.

Order of Publication.
STATE OF MISSOURI, ss.
County of Saline, ss.
In the Circuit Court, May term, 1901. In vacation, March 14, 1901.
James Reynolds, Plaintiff, vs.
Mamie Reynolds, Defendant.
At this day comes the plaintiff herein, by his attorneys, Reynolds & Hayman, and having heretofore filed his petition and affidavit, alleging, among other things, that defendant, Mamie Reynolds, has absented herself from her usual place of abode in this State, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon her.
Whereupon, it is ordered by the Clerk, in vacation, that said defendant be notified by publication that plaintiff has commenced a suit against her in this court, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a decree of the Circuit Court divorcing plaintiff from the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted with the defendant, and that unless the said Mamie Reynolds be and appear at this Court, at the next term thereof, to be begun and holden at the Court House in the City of Marshall, in said county, on the 15th day of May next, and on or before the third day of said term, if the term shall so long continue—and if not, then on or before the last day of said term—answer or plead to the petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment will be rendered accordingly.
And it is further ordered, that a copy hereof be published, according to law, in the Marshall Republican, a newspaper published in said County of Saline, for four weeks successively, the last insertion to be at least thirty days before the first day of said next May term of this court.
A. B. HOY,
Circuit Clerk.
A true copy from the record.
Witness my hand and the Seal of
of the Circuit Court of Saline
County, this 14th day of March,
1901. A. B. HOY,
Circuit Clerk.
By J. P. LOFTIS, D. C. 6-4W